Two Heraldic Panels - North Quire Screen (0.6m x 1.3m each) 2012

The heraldic panels were commissioned by Selby Abbey architect David Sherriff to commemorate two High Stewards of Selby Abbey: Charles Forbes Adam (2008) and Dr Ingrid Roscoe (2000). The heraldic shields are set within a glazing pattern designed by the previous architect Ron Simms, and continuing his scheme commemorating stewards of Selby.
